Anadarko High School COMMENCEMENT

CLASS OF 1914

MAY 27

PROGRAM

Misses Ruth Mitchell, Audry Fitts, Lucile Kimbrough, Fern Brooke.
Address	Dr. A. C. Scott
Overture from de l'Opera Zampa (Two pianos, eight hands)	Harold
Misses Isla Davis, Marguerite Miller, Rachel Downing, Lois Denny.
Presentation of Diplomas	R. A. Cleveland
Class Chorus	Commencement Day Class of '14
Benediction	Rev. Jones

The above program was one of the nicest rendered, high school programs that Anadarko has ever witnessed.

As the curtain raised Mrs. Ida Mitchell, the supervisor of music at the piano played a beautiful class march while the graduating class marched from the rear of the building up on the platform where the faculty, the president of the board of education Mr. R. E. Cleveland, Rev. F. L. Farrington and J. M. Jones were seated.

Everybody was well pleased with the program. Dr. Scott made an extra effort to impress on the minds of all other young people the importance of the preparation of the body as well as the mind. The physical condition of ones body means much in the commencement of the life work. Among the many other good points Dr. Scott advised loyalty to the flag, the country. His talk was interesting and appreciated by all.

Clyde Merryman, an extensive farmer, of near Apache, has 700 acres of fine wheat and 500 acres in oats. Mr. Merryman expects to clear $12,000 this year on his large crop of wheat and oats. The fields are in the best of shape and at present it looks like a sure thing for Mr. Merryman. Oklahoma has thousands of acres of wheat and the prospects for a bumper crop was never better than it is right now.

Rev. Jones enjoyed a short visit from Rev. A. Newton of Alfalfa, Wednesday, who was enroute to Cement to attend his fifth Sunday meeting of the Baptist church. Rev. Jones and Rev. Newton are old time friends.

Rev. N. C. Danner will preach in the M. E. church, south, next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Humphreys is holding a revival meeting in Marlow. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.
